City negotiates deal to revive Casa Loma

Posted By: Newstalk 1010 · 10/24/2013 5:59:00 AM

There's word that there's a new plan to revive Casa Loma, the historic 98-room manor at Spadina and Davenport Road in Toronto.

The Globe and Mail says the proposed deal is between the city and Liberty Entertainment Group and it would include putting in a fine dining restaurant and a banquet hall.

It's said to be a 20-year agreement between the two in the hopes of reviving the tourist attraction. Exact terms of the deal won't be released until everything is finalized.

The deal is expected to go to the Mayor's executive committee next week and if approved would be sent to city council for the final okay.

Liberty Entertainment Group operates a number of event venues including the Liberty Grand, The Rosewater, Spice Route and the Phoenix Concert Theatre.
