South of Fifth's Hottest Spot: Cibo Wine Bar

The newest hot spot in the South of Fifth neighborhood, Cibo Wine Bar made its way to the beach in December 2014. A project by Toronto based Liberty Entertainment Group, Cibo Wine Bar already calls the Miracle Mile in Coral Gables home and is well on its way to making its mark in Miami as the biggest and newest Italian eatery in all of South Beach.

This bold and beautiful 12,000-square-foot space is a blend of old world rustic and modern industrial chic. The venue, which seats 400, features three distinct dining areas including a spectacular 6,000 square foot rooftop patio.

Cibo Wine Bar has become known for its remarkable wine menu, featuring 3,500 bottles in a soaring two-story award-winning wine room equipped with a harnessed wine angel to retrieve your favorite bottle. The wine selection focuses heavily on bottles from Italy and California as well as a wide selection of fine wine.

Cibo's menu features hand-made traditional Italian dishes and gives guests a true taste of authentic southern food, cooked fresh in front of patrons at the 60ft open kitchen counter. Dishes on the menu include authentic Italian pastas and pizzas, as well as a wide selection of fish and seafood.

Cibo Wine Bar's aesthetics and design are what truly makes it stand out amongst other restaurants in the South of Fifth neighborhood. Its blend of old world rustic and modern chic make it classic yet unrefined. The venue includes one-of-a-kind pieces by world renowned street artist Mr. Brainwash and a spectacular chandelier of red, white and green spheres, beautifully depicting Italy's national flag.

Sunday's at Cibo Wine Bar feature an impressive Italian Bubbles and Brunch.

Amazing food stations give guests an opportunity to sample classic American Breakfast dishes like omelets and Eggs Benedict as well as a wide selection of authentic Italian dishes like pizzas, pastas and cured meats. Champagne specials top off the fantastic menu selections and make it a great way to end off your weekend!

Also check out Cibo Wine Bar's 10 After 10 on Thursday evenings. The menu features a selection of cocktails, 2 for $10, as well as select $10 Pizza's and great music by local DJ's.

Life is beautiful at Cibo Wine Bar South Beach – be sure to check out this amazing new venue when you're in the South of Fifth neighborhood!
