in CONCERT at
The Phoenix Concert Theatre Monday April 9th. 2007

Toronto – Liberty Entertainment Group, is pleased to announce Gilby Clarke in concert at the Phoenix Concert Theatre Monday April 9th. 2007.

Gilby Clarke a guitarist, singer and songwriter has been compared to the likes of Ron Wood, Johnny Thunders and the band mates of Cheap Trick. Early in his career Clarke joined the famous Guns N' Roses. In the Fall of 1991, he spent three years on the Use Your Illusions World Tour. Clarke also appeared on the GN'R albums' The Spaghetti Incident, Live Era '88-'91 and Greatest Hits. During this time he had the pleasure of working with artists such as Michael Jackson, Lenny Kravitz, Steven Tyler and Jeff Beck, this lead to GN'R being included within events such as the Freddy Mercury Tribute Concert and being presented with the opportunity to participate in their own GN'R pay-per-view televised concert. In 1992, Clarke and his band mates were honored with the MTV Video Vanguard Award.

Clarke began his solo career in 1994, which included albums Pawnshop Guitars, followed by 97's The Hangover, 98's Rubber, 99's 99 Lives and 02's Sway.

Gilby Clarke's 2007 Tour has launched, with a first time solo appearance at Toronto's Phoenix Concert Theatre. The Phoenix Concert Theatre is eighteen thousand square feet of electric grandeur encompassing three different environments which make this venue so unique. The Main Room features one of the city's leading edge sound and lighting systems, five bars including a 50 foot bar made out of marble, a twenty by thirty foot stage, full concert facilities and giant projection screen. Le Loft which overlooks the main room features an overhanging balcony which stretches the entire width of the club, lounge seating and its own separate bar.

The Phoenix Concert theatre has welcomed a number of Internationally renowned artists some of which include The Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, Tragically Hip, Green Day and Metallica to name a few.
